

Believers To the Christians !

The "Road to Damascus" : Chart of independance

Paul of Tarsus was a convinced Jew, fanatically attached to the Synagogue. When he was about 25 years old, he took the road to Damascus in order to arrest certain Jews in this City who had become Christians. Suddenly Jesus appeared to him while he was still on the road. He asked Paul to become His disciple (Acts 9).

This vision totally changed Paul's conception about his faith and liberated him completely from the Synagogue, making of him a free disciple of Jesus, an independant believer.

Today, God invites us to get closer to Him. He ardently wants to establish a new and more intimate, direct relation with each one of us. In order to answer God's call, we must free ourselves by passing personally through a modern "Road to Damascus". But many bigots are fanatically attached to the various religious institutes, like Paul was to the Synagogue. They are afraid to walk hand in hand with God ; they feel that they need some established institution to support them.

Yet we have noticed an obvious deterioration in the moral quality of the various religious institutions, the Vatican Church in particular. This is a sign of the End of Times. It is time to rely upon God only not on any clergy. Those who wish to answer to God's call, must free themselves from the ties of the various misleading religious institutes who prevent our spiritual growth. God, in the Book of saint John's Revelation, offers us the opportunity to elevate ourselves to Him by opening a new spiritual door in front of us : "I have opened in front of you a door that no one will be able to close...I saw a door open in Heaven and I heard...: Come up here; I will show you what will happen in the future" (Rev 3,8/ 4,1).

We cannot ignore what is actually happening: the obvious moral deterioration of the Church. The medias reveal it often. A big part of our mission is to testify against it. When we do so, the superficial, fanatical and misinformed Christians answer : "But Jesus said that the gates of Hell will not prevail against it". That's true ! Jesus did say this! (Mat 16,18)

Nevertheless, Jesus also predicted the treason of this Church at the end of times, before He returns. He said : "When the Son of Man will come, will He find faith on earth ?!" (Luke 18, 8). He confirmed the defection of the Church by saying : "...with the increase of iniquity, love in most people will grow cold". Yet, He added : "...but whoever stands firm to the end shall be saved" (Mat 24,10-13). Those who stand firm will be saved by freing themselves from a hopelessly contaminated clergy.

Already in 1846, the Holy Virgin, appearing in La Salette (France), declared that the clergy were "sewer of impurity". She also warned us : "The Antichrist will appear...Rome will lose the faith and will become the siege of the Antichrist". Therefore, the gates of Hell have prevailed against this Church!

What Church did Jesus mean then? Peter's Church that betrayed Him? Certainly not! He meant the One established by those who stand firm to the end "in the time of trial which is coming for the whole world, to put the people of the world to the test" (Rev. 3,10). This Time has now come.

Jesus told Peter : "When you were young, you put on your belt yourself and went where you pleased; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and somebody else will put a belt around you and take you where you would rather not go" (John 21, 18).

Today, after 2 000 years, Peter, represented by the Pope, has become old. He is dragged - and the Church with him - by somebody else, where he should not go! Christians must save themselves from this hidden mysterious "somebody else". Who is he?

Paul warned us that this enigmatic person will appear just before the Return of Jesus: "This (Return) cannot happen until the Great Revolt has taken place and there has appeared the Wicked One, the Lost One, the Enemy (of Christ : the Antichrist), who raises himself above all that is called God... and enthrone himself in God's sanctuary..." (2 Thess 2,3-4). Is this not the actual situation of the Vatican?! Is the Pope really free? No!! "Somebody else" pulls the strings in the dark: the Antichrist. We've been thoroughly warned!! Who is the Antichrist?

St John answers : "Who is the Liar if not the one who claims that Jesus is not the Christ ? This is the Antichrist" (1 John 2,22).

Who claims that Jesus is not the Christ, the expected Messiah? Who awaits "somebody else" as the Messiah? The Christians? Of course not. The Muslims? No. The Coran confirms that Jesus is the Messiah (Coran III; Imran Family, 45). Only the Jews deny that Jesus is the Messiah and await "somebody else" as the Messiah. They believe that the State of Israel is a sign of his advent in the very near future.

The return of the Zionist State is one of the signs that a new spiritual era is comin upon us and that Jesus has already started his Return. Many Independant Believers have met Him on their "Road to Damascus". With Him they launched the "Universal Restauration" predicted by the prophets (Acts 3,21). (Refer to our text: "The Universal Restauration").

Some of the Christians used to say : "Out of the Church there is no salvation". Today we say : "In this Church there is no salvation". All those who admit this evident fact already start on their "Road to Damascus". The Messiah will appear to them as He did to Paul. He will lead them through the "Open Door".

In the past, Peter urged the Jews to save themselves from the Synagogue: "Save yourselves from this perverse generation. They accepted what he said and were baptised" (Acts 2,40-41). Today the same words are addressed by God to his children about the Church : "Come out my people, away from her, so that you do not share in her crimes and have the same plagues to bear" (Rev 18,4-5).

On May 13, 1970, Jesus appeared to a pro-Israeli priest in Lebanon and revealed to him an upsetting enigma. He said : " Today is May 13th, the day of the apparition of Mary, our Mother, in Fatima. Open the Book of Revelation chapter 13: The Beast is Israel !". This sudden statement is equivalent to that of Paul on his "Road to Damascus" because its vital spiritual and practical implication has lead this priest to become, like Paul, an Independant Believer. Please refer to our text "The Key of the Apocalypse".

The Vatican has been misled by the Antichrist, in spite of the warnings of Jesus, Paul, John and Mary. The clergy has abandoned the divine Saviour to follow the satanic Seducer. "The gates of hell have prevailed upon this Church". This is the reason why Jesus opened a new Door for his followers to leave this Church and penetrate the "New Jerusalem, the New Earth and the New Heaven" announced in the book of Revelation (21, 1).

After having seen Jesus and understood His Message, Paul had the courage to break away from the Synagogue and thus started to spread the Messiah's teachings all over the world. Likewise, today, all those who see the Antichrist in this old Church misled by him, should have the courage to imitate Paul and leave this crumbling Church, and start building the New Earth and the New Heaven as Jesus wants us to do. "The gates of hell will never prevail against them".

The Jewish clergy commanded Peter and John "not to teach at all in the Name of Jesus", but they answered: "How can we stop proclaiming what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4,18-20). Time has come to no longer obey to different religious chiefs, but only to Jesus Himself.

The apocalyptic Trumpet has already been sounded. The true disciples of Jesus are the ones who will hear its sound in their hearts and become – like Peter, Paul and the apostles - Independant Believers.
